

Ryde Secondary College

Competitions in English

Ryde Secondary College runs many competitions throughout the year. The English faculty organises:

The Dorothea McKellar poetry competition
Sydney Morning Herald Young Writers competition
The Sydney Morning Herald Young Playwrights Competition
The Sydney Theatre Company Young Playwrights Competition
The Australian English Competition
The MS Readathon

There are also opportunities for students to participate in local events by writing for the Ryde Youth Magazine, [type] Ryde and in the Somerset National Novella Competition, producing short films for ArtsNorth and the Take Your Place Short Film Competition and producing poetry for local publication. Updates and current events are listed in the school newsletter for further information.
